MANIFESTO

The changes that shape our culture all started with asking why?
In arts and industry, in fashion and food
From space travel to business travel
The rules get reimaged when we ask that simple question.

Antonio Catalan asked “why?”
Why can't a business hotel be comfortable and inspiring?
Why should people pay for extras they don't need?
Why is the décor so 70s? The service so 80s? The technology so 90s?

At AC Hotels, we're answering the “whys”
With an entrepreneur's spirit, and a designer's eye;
We've created a new kind of stay
For a new kind of traveler.
Who prefers to have fewer things
But expects them to be better than good.

And so do we.
That's why, in every tiny detail,
In each piece of art we select
In each drink from our bar,
We've created something perfectly designed
For modern business travel.
